

History of Toys

Changes within living memory

Key Facts

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| I have an awareness of the past, and can use common words and phrases relating to the passing of time. | To know that toys have existed for a long time and there are many different types of toys. |
| To know and recognise some old and new toys and talk about their differences. | To know that over time the materials that toys are made of have changed. |
| To know how to sequence toys through history onto a chronological timeline. | I can recognise and name some toys from the past. |
| To know how modern day toys have developed. | I can use a range of sources to find out information about the past. |

Vocabulary

| | |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 21st century | We are in the 21st century . It started in the year 2000 and will end in 2099. |
| wooden toys | Lots of toys were made of wood. Boats, train sets and cup and ball were all made of wood. Some toys are still made of wood. |
| paper toys | Some toys, like paper windmills, were made out of paper. |
| metal toys | Toy soldiers and some spinning tops were made out of metal. |
| plastic toys | Most modern toys are made of plastic. Toy soldiers, dolls and ride-on cars are usually made of plastic. |

19th century
Toys: wooden dolls, wooden doll houses, tea sets, ball and cup, spinning top, toys soldiers, leather footballs.

21st century
Toys: handheld games consoles, virtual reality.

20th century
Toys: teddy bears, Barbie dolls, Action Man, electronic toys, computers, games consoles.

