

Through Baptism and Confirmation people are given the gift of the Holy Spirit and are called to respond in their lives.

Confirmation is the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit as granted to the apostles on the day of Pentecost.

The oil used in the sacramental celebration is called Chrism, consecrated by the bishop during the Chrism Mass on Holy Thursday.

Year 4 Topic 2

OUR BIG QUESTION
How do people respond to being called?

REFLECTION
Almighty and eternal God,
you keep together those you have united.
Look kindly on all who follow Jesus your Son.
We are all consecrated to you by our common baptism;
make us one in the fullness of faith
and keep us one in the fellowship of love.
Amen.
