FAREWELL

A see you soon from Chris the Lay Chaplain

The calm before the arrival, a new day to begin. We don't know what awaits, what you'll do when within Whether your Year 5, 6, foundation or Mrs Reed. You treat me with care and friendship, what more could I ever need.
I try to help you grow and conquer fear. I hope you know you're worth more, that you belong here.
Each student and staff member is loved, each one with something to give, a laugh, a smile, a moment to relive.
You will never see the effect you have on me, the greatness inside you that I have always seen.
By the end of my time a bond is formed, a friendship like no other.
By the end I've gained a staffroom of Big sisters, and over 200 little sisters & brothers.
You taught me how special a place can be, and I'm the better for coming to St Peter's Hinckley.
You inspired this heart and bring it to tears, it has been blessed with all of you all these years.
Dear staff, students and families, you will never truly know At the end of this week when I finally go .
You'll never be forgotten no matter what I try and do, Because forever in me, will forever be a piece of you.

LECTIO VISION

The royal line of David is like a tree
that has been cut down; but just as new branches sprout from a stump, so a new king will arise from among David's descendants.
Isaiah 11:1
